NOTE: THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF APPLICABLE LABOR STUDIE COURSES (37:575) THAT CAN BE UTILIZED TOWARD THE HRM MAJOR (REGARDLESS OF CATEGORY) IS LIMITED TO THREE COURSES.

With the exception of 37:533:376, any course that is cross-listed or an equivalent to any of the Labor Studies Courses included in the HRM major will count toward the acceptable number of Labor Studies Courses allowed within the major. For example: 01:988:309 substitutes for 37:575:309 and therefore counts as one of the three Labor Studies courses allowed toward the Major.

COURSES CAN ONLY BE COUNTED ONCE WITHIN THE HRM MAJOR

Students must receive a grade of "C" or better in each course. Up to 18 credits from the HRM courses can be transferred toward the Master's Program provided:

- Courses are from the list of transferrable courses.
 - Student receives a "B" or better in each course.
 - Student is accepted into the Master's Program within 5 years of receiving his/her undergraduate degree.
- The published list of courses that can be transferred (some restriction apply) into the Master's Program can be found at:
<http://smlr.docs.rutgers.edu/content/masters-advantage-plan-map>

The HRM Department of the School of Management and Labor Relations will determine whether students have sufficiently completed the requirements necessary to receive the HR major at graduation. To facilitate the verification process, students are urged to monitor their requirements in the Degree Navigator system and to contact the HRM Student Counselor with any questions regarding their academic records.

DECLARATION

Students interested in majoring in Human Resource Management thro SAS need only declare the major through the SAS on-line major/minor declaration system at: mymajor.sas.rutgers.edu.

- Declaration can only be made after Intro to HR 533:301 has been taken and completed with a C or better.
- As regards the HRM Major, it is NOT necessary OR advisable for SA students to transfer into The School of Management & Labor Relations
- Students from schools outside of SAS who wish to declare the HRM major as a double major should contact their advisers to obtain a Major/Minor declaration form. All forms should be presented for approval and counseling to the HRM Department Student Counselors of the School of Management and Labor Relations.

TRANSFER COURSES

No more than three transfer courses may be utilized toward the major.

REGARDING ELECTIVES

• Students may take all special topics courses or, may use listed LSER courses, or utilize courses from the core that are not used toward the Degree Navigator R2 requirement.

• While multiple Special Topics Courses are allowed, in order for these courses to be applied toward the major, students must take differing subjects from within the Special Topics offerings. No topic may be repeated.

INTERNSHIPS

Internships are not required for completion of the HRM Major. Student interested in receiving academic credit for an internship through the HF Department should acquaint themselves with the eligibility requirement and application process outlined on the HRM website:
<http://smlr.rutgers.edu/content/independent-study-internships-human-resource>

HRM DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

The Human Resource Management Department offers a Departmental Honors Curriculum for those students who excel in the HRM Major core courses. Students interested in the HRM Departmental Honors Curriculum should first consult the program checklist for eligibility requirements. Advanced planning is required.

*Topics vary from semester to semester and those listed above are not all inclusive.

Applies only if core is fulfilled. No course can be used twice within the HRM Major.

 By permission only. For details, see website: smlr.rutgers.edu/hrmug

*Was previously a Special Topics Course; either number applies.
