Special Needs Accommodations

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: <https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form \(https://webapps.rutgers.edu/student-ods/forms/registration\).

Module 1 begins on September 6. During each weekly module, you will complete the following course components:

Viewing of Recorded Class Lectures – Approximately two hours of recorded lectures (multiple parts) to be posted in each weekly module in Canvas to support your reading, slides, and other course activities.

Assignments (Graded) - Weekly assignment on module material that will need to be submitted in Canvas dropbox.

Discussions (Graded) - Asynchronous discussion board among the students based on four questions on the weekly material. Students post responses and interact with others through a virtual discussion board. Discussion groups will be set up starting in the second week.

Quizzes (Graded) – Weekly check on terms, concepts and calculations from the weekly module.

Online Office Hours –

D. Coffey, Fridays, 11:00 am to 12:00 pm, Eastern Time

J. Jiang, Wednesdays, 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm, Eastern Time

Online office hours using Zoom to discuss the weekly material and address other concerns. Additional times will be available by appointment.

Term Project

You will work in teams or individually to do the following:

- I. Select a long-term, capital investment for your Human Resources group, e.g. an applicant tracking system, recruitment assessment center, new training conference center, etc.
- II. Estimate the cost and benefits of your investment using present value.
- III. Calculate the payback period, net present value, benefit cost ratio, and internal rate of return of the proposed investment.
- IV. Submit an executive summary paper (two to three pages maximum including your one-page Excel spreadsheet). In addition, please cite all references in a bibliography at the end of your paper.

Grades will be based on the quality of the following:

- I. Cost/Benefit Analysis
- II. Excel Spreadsheet
- III. Executive summary paper including upfront statement of purpose and recommendation and informative section headings
- IV. If working in a team, peer reviews of your contribution to the team

Teams will be set up midway through the course as we cover related material.) At that time, students may opt to complete the project individually instead of as a team. This option may be preferred by students with connectivity or time-zone issues making it difficult to connect with a team. Once student is assigned to the project as part of a team or as an individual, that assignment will need to be maintained until the project is completed. To help you connect, you can use Big Blue Button to meet and shares documents. You should collaborate with your project team members using the project teams which will be set up for you in Canvas under People. Students will also present these proposals during a live class.

The grading weights for this course are as follows:

Grading Components	% of Course Grade
Exam I	15%
Exam II	15%
Exam III	15%
Weekly Quizzes	15%
Weekly Assignments	15%
Weekly Discussion Posts	15%
Term Project - Paper on capital investment with cost/benefit analysis	10%
Total	100%

Grading Scale

A	90 - 100
B+	85 - 89
B	80 - 84
C+	75 - 79
C	70 - 74
D	60 - 69
F	0 - 59

No extra credit projects will be given at any time during the semester.

You will need to bring a calculator to each class session including the three exams. (A simple one that does basic arithmetic will be sufficient.)

To help you get started, please review the other aids in Learning Support Resources posted in Canvas before Module 1. These tools and resources will help you become acclimated to the way this online course works and prepare you to continue the course online with the weekly module format.

Students are responsible for all administrative announcements including any changes announced on Canvas.

Examinations

Three exams will cover all course material, including lectures, discussions, assignments, quizzes, and readings. Each exam will cover approximately one-third of the course material. The exams will be non-cumulative.

Make-up Policy

The dates of each of the three exams are noted on the course agenda. An exam grade of zero (0) will be assigned to any student who is absent without a legitimate excuse on the date of a regularly scheduled test. Legitimate excuses include illness (verified with a note from a doctor or medical facility), when the instructor emails the class announcing that class is suspended, and other critical circumstances such as death in family.

Please make sure to contact the instructor immediately upon learning you will not be able to make an exam session. A make-up exam will be held at a time that is convenient for the instructor. An officially cancelled examination will be held as rescheduled by the instructor.

Academic Integrity

We in the School of Management and Labor Relations take academic integrity very seriously. Violations include: cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, denying others access to information or material, and facilitating violations of academic integrity. Please consult the university’s Academic Integrity Policy summarizes the student’s obligations below.

<http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-policy/>

Students should be cautioned about sharing course material, especially quiz or exam questions, on websites as such activity may consist of academic dishonesty. Please also note all chapter slides are copyrighted and may only be used as authorized for this class. These slides may not be scanned, copied or duplicated to a publicly accessible website.

Academic Integrity Contract

(To be signed and uploaded in dropbox as directed in class)

All members of the Rutgers University community are expected to behave in an ethical and moral fashion, respecting the human dignity of all members of the community and resisting behavior that may cause danger or harm to others through violence, theft, or bigotry. All members of the Rutgers University community are expected to adhere to the civil and criminal laws of the local community, state, and nation, and to regulations promulgated by the University. All members of the Rutgers University community are expected to observe established standards of scholarship and academic freedom by respecting the intellectual property of others and by honoring the right of all students to pursue their education in an environment free from harassment and intimidation. Please see <http://studentconduct.rutgers.edu> for details regarding the Student Code of Conduct. Please see <http://policies.rutgers.edu/sites/policies/files/10.2.13%20-%20current.pdf> for details regarding the Academic Integrity Policy.

Similarly, all students and faculty members of the academic community at the School of Management and Labor Relations should uphold high standards for personal conduct, ethical behavior, and professional integrity. In the area of academic integrity, students are expected to refrain from cheating, fabricating information, plagiarizing, inappropriately denying others access to material, and facilitating others in academic dishonesty. Please see <http://studentconduct.rutgers.edu/student-conduct-processes/university-code-of-student-conduct/#1495569259725-1f451194-472b> for detailed descriptions of each type of action.

Any of the following acts, when committed by a student, is an act of academic dishonesty and decreases the genuine achievements of other students and scholars. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

Plagiarism/False Representation of Work

- Quoting directly or paraphrasing portions of someone else's work without acknowledging the source.
- Submitting the same work, or major portions thereof, including presentations, to satisfy the requirements of more than one course without permission from the instructor.
- Using data or interpretative material for a report or presentation without acknowledging the sources or the collaborators.
- Failing to acknowledge assistance from others, such as help with research, statistical analysis, or field data collection, in a paper, examination, or project report.
- Submitting purchased materials such as a term paper as your own work.
- Copying or presenting material verbatim from any source without using quotation marks.
- Copying from any source and altering a few words to avoid exact quotation, without the appropriate documentation or by using improper documentation of the source.
- Rewording the major concept found in a source but then omitting documentation or improperly citing the source.
- Submitting as one's own any work created by someone else (e.g., paper, project, speech, video, exercise, etc.) without crediting them. Large duplication of someone else's work should be avoided unless you obtain express permission from both the instructor and originator of the work.
- Fabricating or misrepresenting data or information
- Forging signatures

Cheating

- Copying work on examinations.
- Acting to facilitate copying during an exam.
- Sharing answers through technology or in written or verbal form when such interactions are prohibited
- Using prohibited materials, such as books, notes, phones, or calculators during an examination.
- Working with another student on an assignment when such collaboration is prohibited.
- Stealing or having in one's possession without permission any materials, or property belonging to or having been generated by faculty, staff, or another student for the course.
- Willfully offering to do another student's work so they may represent it as their own
- Assisting another student in cheating or plagiarizing
- Doing another student's work, excluding collaborative learning assignments or joint assignments approved by the instructor.

Engaging in any of the above behaviors can result in an F on the examination or project, an F in the course, denial of access to internships, suspension for one or more semesters, or permanent expulsion from the School of Management and Labor Relations at Rutgers University.

I, _____ understand the Policies on Academic Integrity and the Student Code of Conduct at Rutgers University and the School of Management and Labor Relations. Furthermore, I understand the consequences of unethical behavior.

We all share a responsibility in creating an ethical environment. I resolve to uphold and support high standards for ethics and integrity at Rutgers University. If I see, hear, or observe violations of ethics and integrity I will report them to my instructor, Department Chair, or Dean.
