I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This class will introduce the important developments and themes of the U.S. labor movement from the end of Reconstruction (1877) through World War II. We will take a close look at how American workers built and organized their unions and communities to defend their interests through wars, depressions and intense conflicts with increasingly powerful owners of wealth and capital. Through examination of these struggles we will gain a deeper understanding of the important historical role played by workers and their trade unions as well as learning about how U.S. citizens responded more broadly to the nature of the workplace in political, social and cultural terms.

II. SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

This course meets the writing with revision requirement for the School of Arts and Sciences. In addition to developing your own writing skills through writing successive drafts, you will learn to provide constructive feedback to other students' writing. As part of the writing component, the class instructor(s) will facilitate writing instruction, coordinate peer review sessions on designated days, and assess final writing projects. At the conclusion of the course, students should be able demonstrate an increase in their knowledge and skills in writing/revising academic essays.

Specifically, students should be able to:

- Enter into a dialogue with specialists in a particular field of study;
- Read essays and extract and explain key points and terms;
- Organize a paper from thesis, to topic sentence, to conclusion;
- Interact with texts by using meaningful citations in their papers;
- Use a range of sentence structures; and
- Write meaningful, clear, and organized papers that incorporate thesis development, logic/organization, tone, vocabulary, and spelling.

III. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The following learning objectives of the course are based on Rutgers University's "Permanent Core Curriculum Learning Outcome Goals" (May 2008) and relate to the overall objective of a liberal arts education. A Rutgers student will be able to:

IV. EXPECTATIONS

Preparation

We will be covering a lot of ground in a very short time so please do your reading assignments, pay attention to the (Questions to Consider) and come to class ready to discuss what you have learned from the readings and viewings.

Communication

I will communicate with you via email on a weekly basis. Most of the time I will be providing you with updates, reminders, adjustments and/or reworking of the syllabus so please check your Rutgers email account regularly. Feel free to contact me via email with questions or concerns about the course. I will do my best to get back to you within 24 hours.

When emailing always include "History of Labor and Work" in the subject line of your email.

V. EVALUATION

Final grades will be based on the following:

Attendance/Participation	112	28 classes x 4pts per class = 112
Essay 1 Peer Review	14	You must attend class to complete the peer review and get the points
Essay 1 Draft 2	125	Prof will comment and provide advice for improving final draft
Essay 1 Final	125	Prof will compare final version with Draft 2
Essay 2 Peer Review	14	You must attend class to complete the peer review and get the points
Essay 2 Final	250
Final Exam (Part A)	250	Comprehensive Take Home Exam
Final Exam (Part B)	110	Zoom Oral Exam (Based on Essay II)
Total	1,000

Attendance/Participation (112)

For each class you will have an opportunity to earn a total of 4 pts for Attendance and Participation. You get points for coming to class and signing the Attendance sheet. So, it is vitally important that you come to every class. Failure to sign the sign-in sheet will result in a loss of attendance and participation points. You can only be excused for an illness, death in the family or other real emergencies. It's important to note that being excused means that you will have an opportunity to make up the class by answering the “Questions to Consider” (see below for more info on Questions to Consider) for the class you missed. For other excused absences you will need to see me, and we can figure out how best to provide you with an opportunity to earn missed attendance/participation points. And just to clarify, in order to qualify for an excused absence, you need to send me an email prior to the class, or in the case of an emergency, no more than 24 hours after the class.

You earn more points per class based on your contribution to the class discussion. There will be two opportunities to participate—the first opportunity will be in your small group discussions and the second during full class discussions. In order to get full credit for participation you will need to participate in both the small group and full class discussions. I will ask for volunteers to keep track of student participation for each class. For purposes of clarity, if you come to class and only participate in small group discussions, you will earn 3.2 out of 4 points. If you come to class and participate in both the small group and full class discussion you will get more points and closer to a perfect score for the day (e.g., a 3.6 or higher).

Peer Review Essay Drafts (2 @ 14 Points per draft = 28pts)

Your first drafts of Essays I and II will undergo in class peer reviews where you will read, comment, and make suggested edits to fellow classmates first drafts. The goal is to help each other to improve your essays and improve your own editing skills. Peer review drafts of both papers are required. You will receive 14 points for conducting the Peer Reviews but to get the points, you have to come to class and review at least 2 papers for each session.

Essay I (worth 250 pts)

Essay I, Draft 2, and the final version, are worth 125pts each for a total of 250pts)

For the first Essay you will submit your 2nd draft (the draft that would follow your peer reviews) for grading, and it will count for 125 points and then a final version for another 125 points.

(Note: The 2nd draft is required in order to submit the 3rd and final version!)

One-On-One Writing Conferences

For Essay I, between Draft 2 and the final version of your Essay, you will also have a personal consultation with me. These meetings will be scheduled for Week 7. I will provide details as we get closer to Week 7.

Essay II (worth 250 pts)

For Essay II, you will be required to write a first draft for Peer Review (as described above) but will not be required to submit a second draft for grading. The final version of Essay II will count for 250 points.

The Final Exam (Parts I & II worth 360pts)

The Written Take Home Portion of the Final Exam (Part I - worth 250pts)

The written take home final exam will be comprehensive, and it will cover all course readings, lectures, discussion questions, films, group exercises, etc. You will have one week to complete the final exam. It usually encompasses two prompts, one covering the first half of the course and the other, the second half of the course.

The Oral Portion of the Final Exam (Part II Based on the Essay II Prompt worth 110pts)

The oral exam will be based on the prompt for Essay 2 and some discussion of the course in general. I will have more to say about it as we progress through the semester. When all is said and done, I want the oral exam to be an opportunity for me to have a final meeting with each of you.

The “Questions to Consider”

In each course module on Canvas, you will find “Questions to Consider” and they are posted with each weekly reading assignment. We will use them as the basis for all class discussions (and my occasional “riffs”—planned and unplanned mini lectures). You will find the Questions to Consider very useful for helping you know what to look for in the readings. They will help you develop your essays, as well as the take home and oral parts of the final exam.

It is strongly suggested/encouraged that before you do the readings each week (and here I would add that you must do the readings before the start of each week of class), you should review the Questions to Consider and try to answer them while you are doing the readings. It will make you a more active reader! In other words, if you answer the questions before the start of each week of class you will be ready to engage the class discussion and that is important because it impacts your “participation” grade for the course. In other words, if you know the answers to the Questions to Consider, you won’t have any problem writing good essays or getting a good grade for class participation!

VI. DISABILITY STATEMENT

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation:

<https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: <https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form>.

VII. STATEMENT OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Freedom to teach and freedom to learn are inseparable facets of academic freedom. This class will introduce an array of sometimes conflicting ideas and interpretations of U.S. history, and all who partake in the course should feel encouraged to express their views in an open, civic forum.
