

School of Management and Labor Relations Post-Graduate Career Outcomes Human Resource Management and Labor and Employment Relations Students

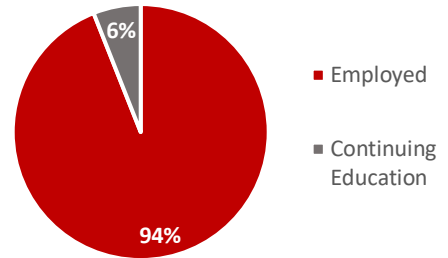

2019 TOTAL SMLR POST GRADUATION OUTCOMES RATE

96%

of SMLR undergraduate and graduate students reported positive post-graduation outcomes (including employed, continuing education & serv in the military) within 6 months of graduation

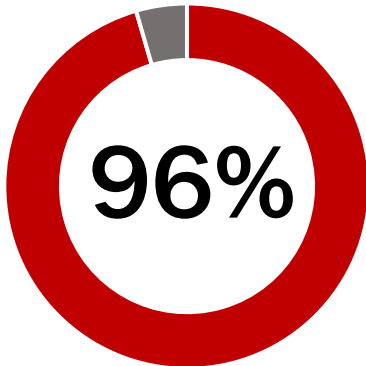

Class of 2019 Data | Response Rate: 85%. Outcomes rate is 6% higher than in 2018.

POST GRADUATION OUTCOMES BREAKDOWN

2019 UNDERGRADUTE STUDENT OUTCOMES

Note: Percentages below indicate positive post-graduation outcomes (employed, graduate school & military)

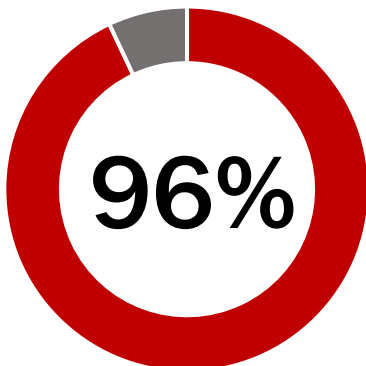

SALARY:
$51,000 – Total Undergraduate Average Starting Salary
$50,000 – Total Undergraduate Median Starting Salary

Bachelors Human Resource Management and Labor and Employment Relations

2019 GRADUATE STUDENT OUTCOMES

Note: Percentages below indicate positive post-graduation outcomes (employed, graduate school & military)

SALARY:
$68,400 – Total Graduate Average Starting Salary
$66,500 – Total Graduate Median Starting Salary

Masters Human Resource Management Labor and Employment Relations

TOP EMPLOYERS

